We went with friends of ours who had stayed there a number of years ago. The restaurant was nice looking however in relation to such Stratford restaurants as the Prune not in the same culinary league. Prices were high in relation to the quality of the food but service was good and attentive. Overall a decent place to eat but not spectacular given the prices. read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also have something outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. What User doesn't like about Westover Inn:

They could use some new signs for visitors to find, drove past the small plate at driveway entrance and totally missed the small sign for parking. We were a lunch group of 12 with one server, could have used a second to help. read more. The original Canadian meals from Westover Inn, prepared with products from the country, are famous, look forward to the typical scrumptious French cuisine. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Furthermore, the guests of the establishment enjoy the large selection of the various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available.
