What User likes about Panda Express: The restaurant has outgrown Angus and the two hour dinner wait tells the story why The town has grown but there is only one Chinese place, perhaps Panda Express should expand! They are very friendly and work very hard. The food is incredibly fresh and tasty. The egg rolls are amazing as is the special fried rice and the beef and broccoli mmm Not a lot of seating and a long wait and not the greatest ambiance. The food... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Panda Express:

Most of the food is ok but when you try to order online, the menu gives you very few options and when you pick one and call up, they don't have it and explain that is the US branch menu and not their menu. So you have to go with your favs that you already know and can't pick anything new. They also don't automatically give you their 10% off for cash pick up as it says on their menu...you have to ask. In a bind, it work... read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Panda Express from Angus, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, The versatile Canadian menus are well received by the guests of the restaurant. As a rule, most menus are prepared in a short time for you and served, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine.
