What User likes about Shawarma & Grill Rockland: This new place, to me, now surpasses Cafe Deslauriers, although very good also. Service is a notch above, food quality and taste also. Better garlic sauce, better potatoes... Chicken is about the same, and you might get better deals at the other place. But Shawarma and Grill is now our go to place in Rockland. We're pretty lucky to have that good of Shawarma joints in a fairly small town. Shawrmas, for the price, is... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Shawarma & Grill Rockland:

Shawarma & Grill Rockland is newest choice in Rockland for shawrma's, falafels and other Middle Eastern fare. I visited this place one time only and will not return primarily based on the attitude and "sense of humour" of one male staff member. I have no idea if this individual is the owner, but his "sense of humour" is actually derogatory in nature and his concept of being funny is borderline disrespectful. Food was... read more. Whether you opt for a tasty flatbread which is refined with a rich garlic infusion, or crispy falafel, the menus from the Middle East transport you for a moment to a distant land - rounded off with honey-like, crispy baklava, you can return satisfied to your daily life, The fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack. In addition, they serve you tasty seafood menus, Likewise, the customers of the restaurant prefer the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
