We took my sister to the Little Schnitzel House for her birthday dinner, and we ALL loved it! They pay attention to the details - the side salad was very flavourful. Everything tasted delicious - we had to try each other meals and they were all good. This included the Weiner Art Schnitzel, the Schnitzel Cordon Bleu and the Steak. (I forget the name of that one, but it was a marinated port steak - thick and tender.) W... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Little Schnitzel House: Food was OK, service was not great, restaurant hasn't been updated in 30 years. light above our table had food stains on it. Riverside in Norland is a better version. portions are small and it is expensive. Reservations only was a pain, but would have been...OK if the restaurant was great, it was just OK read more. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Little Schnitzel House even more worthwhile, But the main feature here are the traditional German meals with matching sides like fries and salads. There are also delicious meals typical for Europe.
