As good as any bagel we've had in Montreal. In addition to plain, poppy and sesame, they make a great cheese bagel and two sweet bagels – cinnamon sugar and maple – that are delicious toasted with butter in the morning. La Bagelerie is the first stop we make when we arrive at our summer house in Rawdon; the day before we leave, we order 2-3 dozen bagels to take home. So happy to have a local supply! read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about La Bagelerie Rawdon: We went there today for lunch and ordered two lunch poutines that seemed delicious. When the plates arrived, the cheese felt horrible! We talked about it to a waitress who confirmed the scent that was coming out of it. We had to sort our plate to remove the cheese. really disappointing plates for the price. The boss and the cook denied the smell of cheese and didn't even come to see us. read more.
