Of course the Arbor, Callahans and Knechtels are the compulsory stops but for a change of pace we tried the Urban Parisienne and had a great lunch experience. Soup and salad or sandwich and salad combos were both generous and delicious and very fast. Loved the patio which will be even nicer once the road construction is complete which appears imminent. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about The Urban Parisian:

I preordered macarons for Easter, asked for Eastery colours with half being vanilla. Why is it okay to give a dozen white vanilla and two colours for the other dozen in chocolate. The order wasn't ready for pick up although owner said it would be ready in the morning. The young man getting it claimed to know nothing as he was only the server and stated as much. What ever happened to customer service? They are not ch... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a appetizing brunch at The Urban Parisian, as much as you want, Likewise, the visitors of the restaurant prefer the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
