What User likes about Pars Grill:

Pars Grille is one of the best non-luxury Persian food places in GTA. The quality is generally good, especially Koobideh skewers are superb. What I don't like though is service quality. Waitresses change frequently and they are not welcoming, esp if you are not an insider. An example is, tea is supposed to be served after the food, but on weekends they do so just for their friends, which doesn't give a good feeling if... read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Pars Grill:

The food is amazing. The best chicken kebob and kobideh and sandwiches. The owner and employees are very nice and welcoming. They just have to focus about cleaning (washroom and make sure no hair). read more.

Whether you opt for a fine flatbread which is refined with a spicy garlic paste, or crispy falafel, the dishes from the Middle East are almost like a mini-vacation - rounded off with honey-like, crispy baklava, you can return strengthened to your daily life, The meat is freshly cooked here on an open flame. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Pars Grill. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known meals too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste, The guests of the establishment also appreciate the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
