Good food, good prices, good service. They were busy, it was a Saturday morning, so the food was a little slower coming out. The only recommendation I would make is to put little tent cards on the tables or a sign near the door when you come in that says "please seat yourself and place order at the counter" to tell people who are not locals that there is no table service. We sat there for a few minutes before someone... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. Sandeannie's Bakery and Tea Room:

stoped in for brunch with my family, we had small children with us. The place was small, cluttered with pig statues, wasn't too busy when we stopped in but we were still waiting over minutes for meals. we got regular breakfasts...and a kids meal for the kids to split. when our meals arrived we got served with burnt toast, bacon and over cooked eggs. They advertised that skirlie came with the breakfasts but still char... read more.
