Stopped in for lunch on our way to Margaree Hrb. Just ordered the seafood chowder and I have to say that it has been the best we have had yet! OMG the seafood was cooked to perfection and a nice leeks and onions base. I do have to say however, that the soup was either so freshly made it didn't have time to really marry the flavours or it was underseasoned. But it was hot like soup is supposed to be, enjoyed every bit... read more. porthood and surroundings do not shine for variety and richness of locals, we happened here by chance without having consulted reviews of tripadvisor and from Italian I must confess that I did not have the courage to try dishes like "meat ball and linguini (single dish) but I folded on a prudent seafaring chowder and vegetarian wrap very rich with garden salad. Everything really delicious! and the added value was ass... read more.
