I was reluctant to buy sea food from a food truck, but we were starved and in a hurry, so we decided to take a chance. I am so glad we did! The truck was parked in front of the local craft brewery when we stopped, but we found it parked on the outskirts of town another day (yes, we stopped again!). We had lobster rolls both times and they were awesome. Fresh bread, fresh lobster, and a great selection of flavored ma... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Lobster Jo's Food Truck:

The flavours are just not there sadly- needed a touch of cayenne, some citrus, salt & pepper, little bit more mayo (or a touch of Dijon or good trick is some lobster paste) There was very little lobster meat (1/2 cup of filling from full bun) for $15, bun was dry. No side of chips; no napkin. Pros: good lobster meat - fresh Again GREAT IDEA read more. Lobster Jo's Food Truck from Mahone Bay is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, the customers love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big screen in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks. Visitors of the Lobster Jo's Food Truck appreciate the varied Canadian dishes, Here, incidentally, there is the typical mood and naturally also the ambiance of a typical Brasserie.
