This is one of the best organized wine yard/restaurant we visited while in Nova Scotia. My wife and I rarely have the same dish so we can share and discuss, but the Lobster and Scallop Chowder that Amanda recommended was something neither of us could resist. One word of warning: The Grand Pre National Historical Site is just over the hill. Visit it first! It's a bit of a walk and a lot harder on a full stomach. (You ca... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Le Caveau Restaurant:

The food is decent enough (no more that) to merit a return visit BUT not if the very limited menu has not been changed. The chef has been trotting out the same menu for over two months now which is hardly inspiring. The service is slow, but pleasant enough when it eventually kicks into gear. The ambiance is over-rated and in fact the dining room is quite sparse and uninspiring. read more. At Le Caveau Restaurant from Wolfville it's possible to enjoy delicious vegetarian menus, that were made without any animal meat or fish, The typical Canadian dishes are well received by the visitors of the restaurant. Following various sports events and competitions is equally one of the highlights of visiting this sports bar, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
