My wife and I made a stop here for lunch while we spent the day completing the very scenic Pacific Marine Circle Route. We had an order of Cowichan Valley Chicken Wings, the Sockeye Burger, and the Smoked Salmon Corn Chowder. Everything was great, with the chowder being the highlight of the whole meal. It's a great stop to make and we were even more glad to have chosen this place after passing by the other two restaura... read more. User doesn't like about Coastal Kitchen:

I was all set to give this place a scathing review based upon getting something unexpected in one of our meals. However the staff manager handled it very well the next day so I relented. The food here is ok-but certainly not better than average...in my view. We stayed in Port Renfrew for a few days so we were a captive audience. Otherwise I would have given this a pass second time around read more.
