I have heard about the burgers at the Hitching Post for years, and recently my son and I decided on a recent trip to Calgary to travel the 56 or so kilometres to sample the goods. Glad we did! We both had the double cheese burger, I had the onion rings and he had poutine. The beef was thick, juicy, perfect and not at all greasy. I wish in hindsight that I'd taken the time to savour the experience, rather to inhale it... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Hitchin Post Drive-In:

We had this for a late lunch on a Friday - I would recommend it, but only for burgers and for some of the desserts. The real fruit shakes as well as the burgers are quite good and the service is very friendly. Unfortunately, the chicken tenders were quite dry and the oreo shake was very disappointing - it didn't taste like they used actual Oreo cookies. I wouldn't recommend them. read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious cuisine from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good variety of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, Generally, the dishes are prepared fast and fresh for you. In addition, there are fine American menus, such as burgers and grilled meat, It shows that the typical Canadian menus are well received by the customers of the establishment.
