Three seniors drove down from Calgary to check out High River and see how they are doing four years after the flood. We picked Rio Alto for dinner. We started by sharing an order of Chorizo Queso Fundido. It was good although the cheese on top could have been melted a bit more. Two of our party then shared an order of the Rio Alto Sombrero Platter: empanadas, hard tacos, hopes, enchiladas and soft tacos. They enjoyed... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Rio Alto:

Was looking forward to trying the food at Rio Alto but after sitting down I never got the chance. There were only 3 other tables in use, I sat for over 15 minutes without the server even looking in my direction let alone taking a drink order or dropping off a menu. Noticing that nobody else had yet received a meal and that the servers were in a state of panic I couldn't bare it any more and HAD to leave. With the lim... read more.
