I have been fortunate to be at several events catered by Season and her excellent chefs and staff in the past year. The functions have ranged from private dinner parties to large events. Each time I was excited to see some of their mouth-watering specialties, as well as new and exciting creations. The food is fresh and aesthetically beautiful and far from the run of the mill fare that is often seen at catered events.... read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Culinary Designs:

We hired Season to cater our 150+ wedding. It was a disaster. The food that Season served us for our wedding tasting was great and we were confident that she could deliver. BUT the food she served at our wedding was an embarrassment and nothing like we had agreed. She is inconsistent and to top it off, she refused to take any responsibility for her failure. Don't take a gamble on this caterer! read more. Right now you could possibly be considering healthier eating habits; for such considerations Culinary Designs's food menu offers a large assortment of easily digestible meals, In addition, the delectable desserts of the establishment shine not only in the eyes of the little guests. guests of the Culinary Designs appreciate the typical Canadian meals as well, You can't absolutely nothing wrong, particularly with bite-sized Tapas, because there is something for all tastes.
