What User doesn't like about Auberge Baker:

Stopped for a typical Quebecois meal. If this was typical, I 'm glad I don 't live here. The vegetable soup was flavorless, the chicken was tough, and you needed a steak knife to cut the vegetables. Dessert was a mixed fruit jello like concoction that was...left over from the seventies. Don 't bother stopping here. read more. Auberge Baker is famous for its traditional Canadian menus, made from typical country ingredients, Moreover, the enchanting desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Forbreakfast a hearty brunch is offered here.
