Four of us stopped in for lunch and were only disappointed that there were no tables available outside. However, we were not disappointed with our menu choices- a difficult decision as there were so many choices. My husband enjoyed his Cod chowder, one lady raved about the amount and quality of lox in her bagel, the other gentleman enjoyed his sandwich of corned beef which was sliced thick and piled high. I ordered the... read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat.
