What User doesn't like about haywire Cafe & Grill House:

Slightly off the beaten track but interesting none the less. An old red barn like building which may have been a house many years ago. Outside was an artist painting and inside there were some antiques and his paintings on the walls. A restaurant that seated about 30-40. Not at all busy. Fish (snapper) and chips were a specialty and two enjoyed that although there were too many French fries. The pulled pork sandwich...
