The food was excellent the service second to none, the local selection of draft beers just added to the experience. The local one man band (Jamie Baldwin) gave the patio where we ate an extra dimension in eating in Grand Bend. read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Midori Sushi Bar:

I guess we should have had the sushi which I'm assuming is what they specialize in. Instead, we both had a noodle dish with local Hayter's turkey in it. The turkey had a very strange taste to it. I couldn't tell if it was the seasoning they used or if the turkey was a bit "off". I decided to leave it and just have the noodles. My husband ate his turkey and didn't get sick, so I'm assuming it was just the way they sea... read more. In the Midori Sushi Bar from Grand Bend, a lot of fresh vegetables, fish, and meat are used to prepare healthy, tasty Japanese meals, Naturally, you should also taste the scrumptious burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Midori Sushi Bar. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known meals too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, Particularly fine are also the Sashimi and specialties like Inside-Out from this place.
