The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Sushi Hon:

Small little hole-in-the wall, strip mall type of place with uninspired, lackluster decor. Our server seemed irritated by my husband's food allergy and couldn't get our simple order right, despite running through it several times. Then she started sweeping the floor around us and closing...up the restaurant, despite the fact that we hadn't received our food yet. We were the only table in the restaurant, but it took m... On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Sushi Hon. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known meals too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients taste. Also, the guests of the establishment love the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
