Drove around town and found this little hideaway restaurant & decided to check it out. Plain and simple tables/chairs with no paper or linens on the tables. Not a very big place but we got seated quickly. The menus were very worn out and dirty but the waitress was friendly and the food was really good! The calamari was probably the best I'd ever had. A very light coating on perfectly cooked calamari - not chewy and... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Thai House Campbellville:

The resto has nice ambiance, a full bar and some parking, but for a remote Thai place, it is meh. The service is ok, the food could be more tastier, but the value is terrible. $35 pp for lunch is not cheap. coupled with small portions, poor value. The tamarind curry is indeed nice, but red curry insipid. Coconut rice ho hum. And pad thai really small. In fact all the portions are small for this price point ($14 per di... read more. From Milton comes Thai House Campbellville and brings delicious menus to the table, seasoned with the Thai culinary known spices and (fish-)sauces, in addition to freshly harvested vegetables, seafood and meat, The successful fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring ingredients is highly valued by the customers - a nice example of Asian Fusion. Of course, the right drink with a meal can be crucial; this gastropub offers a large selection of tasty and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, there are also tasty vegetarian dishes in the menu.
