Live in the area and stopped by for dinner . Staff are very kind and welcoming , the menu looks fun with tons of varieties. The issue was the food Our tomato soup and French onion were great. For our mains We ordered the fried chicken sandwich with a side of sweet potato fries ... sadly they were sOOoOo salty to a point that it was barely edible. You could actually see the chunks of salt all over the sweet potato fries... read more. At Harbord House from Toronto you can savor delicious vegetarian menus, in which no animal meat or fish was used, In addition, the latest games or races can be watched on the big screen in this sports bar, which the visitors also love. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a diverse selection of delicious and regional alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, here they serve a appetizing brunch for breakfast.
