What User doesn't like about That Lil Pasta Place:

Called today to place an take out order, was told that they did not have what I ordered and had not had it for 8 months. When I explained that it was on their menu on the web, I was told that they did not have a web site. The man that was on the phone, was rude and had no costumer service at all, this is the second time we have tried to do take out from the place, and both time have had the worst customer service eve...
