This place is very cute especially for the random location. I also love the little story behind the unique name. I came in and wanted to study and eat/drink on and off for a few hours and the staff/owner seemed to not like this idea too much and kept looking at us. The server seemed annoyed which made us feel very uncomfortable.

Maybe the downtown location would be better for studying and eating... Odd because their... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Charlotte and the Quail:

Out of town guests wanted to see the Horticultrual Centre so stopped for lunch. Uninspired food. Roasted vegetable kale salad had perhaps two vegetables at the bottom. Dressing was insipid. Kale was old and leathery. read more.
