This business was recommended by McCulloch House. Ordered chowder however the pieces of lobster in same were "thawed". It almost tasted like imitation crab. There is also another business practicality set up in the business's back lot. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WLAN is available free of charge. What User doesn't like about Stone Soup Cafe:

There were not very many choices of places to eat in the evening and we were told that the proprietor of this place likes to close promptly so we made sure we were in good time. The menu promises much but the food was very average. Staff were nice enough but the atmosphere is almost sepulchral - didn't like the lighting, the colour scheme or the art on the walls. read more. Stone Soup Cafe is famous for its typical Canadian meals, made from typical country ingredients, there are also tasty vegetarian meals on the menu. In case you want to have breakfast, a versatile brunch is offered to you, There are also scrumptious South American dishes on the menu.
