Here you can find the menu of Latin Fiesta in Kelowna. At the moment, there are 33 dishes and drinks on the card. You can inquire about seasonal or weekly deals via phone. What User likes about Latin Fiesta: We found the lineups to be surprisingly long and the staff of three was certainly kept busy while we were there. the food was tasty and reasonably priced but the portions were not large. I would definitely recommend the pork tostadas! Very fun find! read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat.

What User doesn't like about Latin Fiesta:

We ordered in and took out. Our group of 10 had a variety of dishes and seemed to like their food. The large order did cause a little confusion on the part of the staff. I had a burrito but found it to be quite ordinary. I may be biased since I live in Southern California where we have an almost unlimited variety of restaurants that serve burritos. read more. If you're craving some spicy South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: tasty meals, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also on the menu, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the flavorful pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an original manner. Even the versatile, fine Mexican cuisine, traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chili, is very popular with the guests, there are also delectable vegetarian dishes in the menu.
