Was looking for a nice little place for a bit to eat. Ran across this little place , they had an interesting and appealing board out front. Although, it was getting late in the evening, I was warmly welcomed. I ordered and appetizer and an entree, food was delicious. I was the last customer and I never felt rushed. The service, quality of food and value all led to a great experience. If I am ever in the area, I will b... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Idgies Fine Food:

Was expecting better. Had the escargot in mushroom appy which was in a watery broth. Not quite the texture/favors I was hoping for. For my entree, I had the almond crusted sockeye salmon. Tho the menu says all fish is cooked to medium, my piece was quite overcooked and dry. It also had a weird white coating under the almonds that was very salty. Since there was only one waitstaff and food was taking a while to come o... read more.
