Having left Hotel in Vancouver early we were very hungry once we arrived in downtown Prince Rupert and Naomi's Grill filled the gap wonderfully well .Good service and good food. Many locals eating here - always a good sign and so it proved. If we ever get back to Prince Rupert we know where to eat. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Naomi's Grill:

No fan of the pregnant server. Even if she's pretty and super friendly, her pregnancy has influenced our service. Her family showed up while we eat and we noticed that she was distracted from her job. The meal itself was unbelievable and with...proper future planning we will definitely return. read more. Naomi's Grill from Prince Rupert is a good option for a bar if you want to have a beer after work and hang out with friends, The yummy sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack. Furthermore, you can order fresh roasted barbecue, Additionally, you save time with the selection of ready-to-serve delicacies, without influencing the enjoyment.
