We found this place by accident while roaming around on foot while vacationing in Vancouver. We were pleasantly surprised and very happy with our find. The food was amazing! I've never had such a good soup/noodle/meat combination. Excellent. HUGE portions. Neither my wife or I finished all of ours. Not long of a wait time for a moderately busy time of night. Affordable. I didn't think twice about the prices. Which sa... read more. What User doesn't like about

Noodlebox:

It was a bitterly cold night and we were heading down Homer to another restaurant but we decided to shorten our trek and eat here as I had read some good reviews.. We should have stayed out in the cold. This is a very basic establishment. The food was just ok but there is no service and the ambiance is negligible. While we were eating a rodent ran across the floor. It was very quick so we weren't sure if it was a rat... read more.
