What User likes about JJ's Restaurant @ Vancouver Community College: The food was superb and so reasonable. The students cooked better than most high end restaurants. I had the scallop appetizer and it was tasty and presented well. The veal was done to perfection and the sauce to die for. My bread pudding was delicious but could have had more ice cream. The food is equivalent to a restaurant such as Hawksworth but half the price. The service was excellent. Lots of room for a meeting o... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about JJ's Restaurant @ Vancouver Community College:

I had lunch with my mum there yesterday and yes the food and the price are both great but the maitre d' should maybe have be reminded that the customer comes first : we had booked a table for 2 and a friend of mine wanted to join us last minute and the restaurant was 50% EMPTY and he refused it ! I work in the hotel industry and I was shocked but this fellow was never friendly and very abrupt with his students so I I... read more.
