The place from Vancouver offers 115 different dishes and drinks on the card at an average price of CA$17. What User likes about Bay Sushi Cafe Express:

We asked the Four Seasons to recommend great such with no frills. As usual, they did a great job. This place has fabulous sushi and NO frills at all. Every single piece of sushi is fresh, fresh, fresh. I'm in town for a month and I've been there for lunch so many times that the order taker asked me if I live here. The only thing they could improve on is the containers for soy and wasabi. They're too small and it make m... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Bay Sushi Cafe Express:

Nice little hole-in-the-wall sushi restaurant. If you're looking for decent sushi for a good price with a good location, this is it. Nothing special but still tasty. Probably wouldn't go again as I know of a few other's which this one doesn't live up to, but if you're hungry and in the area - it's not bad. read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The original Asian fusion cuisine of the Bay Sushi Cafe Express from Vancouver - a delicious mix of the familiar and the unexpected, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages. Look forward to the enjoyment of tasty vegetarian menus, Typically, the dishes are prepared for you in the shortest time and fresh.
