I haven't been here for awhile but took my family here for a birthday dinner. The Tuna Tataki was excellent, and we thoroughly enjoyed the Fire Roll, Crazy Girl and others. Food came quickly and staff were friendly and accommodating. They miss a 5 from me as service was very slow to start, though once it did it was an enjoyable meal. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about Nishino Sushi:

I only went here once and that was enough ... it's probably the worst sushi I have had. The rice was mushy and it didn't taste fresh at all. I'm not super picky but this was terrible and it was expensive. I drive to downtown for sushi now if I want it bad enough! read more. The large selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Nishino Sushi even more worthwhile, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Nishino Sushi. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known meals too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients enjoy, there are also tasty vegetarian dishes in the menu.
