My wife, toddler and I stopped in after visiting the lighthouse. We knew nothing about it beforehand. My wife was dying for Lobster so we gave it a go. She enjoyed the Lobster but my fish and chips were fantastic. Other fish and chips we had in NS were very heavy and thickly battered. this was nice light and crisp. Some of the best I've ever had. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Shaw's Landing:

We ate here because it was recommended and found it disappointing. The fried seafood looked and tasted frozen..they were out of oysters...the chowder was ok but I have had better...a beautiful view over the lovely village but just average food that was a little too pricey.
