Called ahead to place the order. Food was still hot and so fresh. We waited about 5 min once we got there for it to be ready as they make it to your order.

Family run business. Location is central and the inside is simple and small. However, you know it's good food when the owners are serving, taking your order and grandma is cooking in the kitchen! What User doesn't like about

Chilangos Mexican Restaurant:

The service wasn't great, my waitress didn't tell us specials or really recommend anything or tell us anything about the restaurant, however I heard another waitress helping the people next to us and she told them that everyone was made in house and told them what is the best the on the menu and she told about the special and she told about drink recommendations.. so it was a little frustrating that we had bad service...
