What User likes about Washoku Bistro:

This restaurant was a great find. Ample parking in the rear. The visit was part of our search for Edmonton's best Bento box. This was our fifth restaurant and was by far the best. Very fresh seafood and generous portions. The rolls were excellent especially the spicy salmon roll. Our server Grace was both helpful and friendly. Can't wait to go back. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Washoku Bistro:

The word washoku means traditional Japanese food, and that's not at all what you get here. The food is fine, but it's not Japanese. I love, love, love Japanese food, and when I saw that a new Japanese restaurant was opening in our neighbourhood I was excited, but I was really disappointed. If you think this is Japanese food, then you have no idea what Japanese food actually is. Far more Korean than Japanese. Give the... read more. Washoku Bistro from Edmonton creates for you fine sushi (e.g., Maki and Te-Maki), in addition to numerous additional variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, Besides, the inventive blend of different meals with new and sometimes adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the visitors - a good case of Asian Fusion. You can also look forward to fine vegetarian cuisine, Also, admirers of Korean cuisine will have their culinary desires fulfilled at the restaurant with menus like Bap, Kimchi or Jjigae.
