This review in on Wed. Oct. 5, 2016. We have stopped at this location on several previous occasions but only to purchase one of their great ice cream cones, but this time we stopped to have lunch in this quaint café. The place was very busy and the staff was handling everything with a smile. This is a small place located in a very small village type cross road. The actual town is called Wallacetown and Talbot Trail i... read more. What User doesn't like about Tall Tales Cafe:

I Love dropping in for breakfast on Sunday morning or a piece of seasonally fresh pie later in the day. Mile High Apple Pie, Peach or Strawberry Rhubarb are favourites and sure to please with a scoop of Shaw's local ice cream. Many patrons from London St Thomas and area drop in just for this reason. Always lots of friendly conversation from the local farm community willing to help you with directions or just include... read more.
