I have Celiac Disease and must have gluten free, uncontaminated food. The staff were well educated on the need to have uncontaminated food and I can eat there without a worry. For me, that is priceless! read more. You can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Canyon Creek:

I hadn't been here in a couple of years but brought my family to celebrate a birthday. I recall the steaks being really good. A few of us had them and what we got was undercooked with small side portions that left us hungry. To be fair the service was very good and they rectified the undercooked steaks for us. The prices were on the high end and the value unfortunately just wasn't there especially with the small port... read more. In case you're hungry some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: tasty menus, prepared with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you can look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine. The traditional Canadian meals are also liked by the customers of the Canyon Creek, there are also delicious vegetarian dishes in the menu.
