My fiance and I came in one Saturday morning to try out their breakfast since it's under new management. I had the eggs benedict and thought I would try it since it said there was a twist on the original, it comes on a cheese scone and it had french fried onions on top. I have to say these food combos do not mix at all! It was also lukewarm when it arrived. The service was friendly though, overall it wasn't horrid bu... read more.
