I just visited with my family of four. The crumbed fish was delicious- freshly made, light, and crunchy. We also got some pieces of fish battered, which was very doughy. I would definitely get the crumbed fish next time. There only seemed to be one lady working when we visited, thankfully it wasn't too busy so we only had to wait 10 or so minutes for the lady to batter and fry the fish. There were also two small table... read more. My husband and I had fish and chips there yesterday and it was the worse fish n chips we have ever had in NS. The "fish" was 80% batter. To top it off the fries were not even home cut fries but frozen. You want good fish n chips in NS go to Freddie's in Bayers Lake, Halifax. The best we have found so far. read more.
