I read the reviews and put this on my list of places to try while here. I didn't realize at first that it was in the mall, but we went to see a movie and I got this. I got the large noodles with broccoli and chicken. It was some of the best I have ever had! read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat.

What User doesn't like about Thai Express:

(AVALON MALL LOCATION) Wouldn't recommend it, went for dinner today. It looked delicious, I got the (4) bread beef sweet Chili Thai bowl, with rice, I can't remember exactly the name, but it tasted like metal or pan, or simply over used oil, I...unsafe as to describe it, but it was just not as delicious as it saw. HUGE disappointment...

I regret not standing up for a refund, I just hate being a pain, but that really deserves a review. Overall friendly service, just have to change their possibilities in the kitchen. The extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Thai Express even more worthwhile, meals from Thailand are prepared here with the popular spices and (fish-) sauces. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Thai Express. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known dishes too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, On the daily specials there are also several Asian dishes.
