After a week in St. John's and some disappointing restaurant meals, we finally discovered this one, which finished as by far our favourite and we went back there the next day, the last of our holiday in St. John's. During both visits, the atmosphere was friendly and relaxed and the service and food excellent. We wished we had found this restaurant earlier on during our holiday. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Granite Bar and Restaurant:

We visited for lunch on a day when sadly, one of the cooks called in sick and a race was happening in the morning that brought in more customers than usual. I could see that getting food from the kitchen was going to be slower, and that was ok BUT....our server seemed to be totally forgetful! We had to ask repeatedly for milk for the tea, more water, cutlery etc. By the time our food arrived, two hours after placing... read more. Granite Bar and Restaurant from St. John's is a good option for a bar if you want to have a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, The meat is freshly prepared here on an open flame. Watching various sports events and competitions is also one of the highlights of visiting this sports bar, It shows that the original Canadian menus are well received by the customers of the local.
