I was driving Toronto to Ottawa and looking for a light lunch. I stumbled on this place -about 2km off Highway 401- by accident (I was looking for Subway). It's mainly a soup salad and sandwich place although there are also hot meals available. I had basic cheese sandwich with salad and it was very good. Decent amount of seating although it's not huge. Definitely a good stop. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. WLAN is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about Homestyle Deli:

I really wanted to like this place. I have been at least 6 times. I usually always get a sandwich, but there is nothing special about them. All the toppings are things I could have at home. And they don't wear gloves.. Ever.. How is this okay in this day and age. I saw them go to the cash and back without washing their hands. The last time, I decided well their "hot food" would be better.. All average. The mac and ch... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a rich brunch at Homestyle Deli, as much as you want, It shows that the typical Canadian dishes are well received by the visitors of the establishment. Meals are usually prepared quickly for you and brought to the table, The yummy sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack.
