Food was plentiful and delicious! Only reason why it's not 5 star is because there was only one waitress on a Friday night, which meant about an hours wait after you order the food. We got our appetizer, main course and drinks all at the same time! That defeats the purpose of ordering an appetizer. Anyways, food was delicious. :) read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Apsara Angkor Cuisine:

On a rainy night, this is a welcoming restaurant with a cheery fireplace bringing real warmth to the friendly room fashioned from the cellar of a heritage building. The warmth continues with a welcome for the friendly waitress. The menu is broad and long; but really the set dinners (for two or more) are such good value, you don't have to look further if you are hungry and don't have a specific dish in mind. The porti...
