This is one of my favoured places in the Drive. I have been going there about once every two months for years and have consistently enjoyed what I call honest food. It is not fine dining but the quality of the food is very good, the portions generous, the prices very reasonable, and the service, although sometimes erratic, most of the time good. You have to try their squid appetizer, and will not go wrong with their fi... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Portuguese Club Of Vancouver: We've been to this place many times, always on weekends for lunch. Every time we felt like the place was short-circuited. I only see a server for the whole restaurant! This time, however, we must add that food was not as good, cod was overcooked, and the amount of food was not as abundant as I used to. I also asked about a high chair and the place has only one that was used by another customer. I would really be happ... read more. The comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Portuguese Club Of Vancouver. Furthermore, the guests are thrilled with the exquisite Portuguese dishes listed on the food menu.

After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, the restaurant offers also dishes from the European environment.
