The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User

doesn't like about VeriFood:

We spent $30 on two pastas which had hardly any sauce or flavour at all. The pasta itself was good but it didn't meet our expectations. The portions were quite small too so we had to go and get extra food from the market. (We're both slim.)When we waited for our food a friend of the staff was sat in the waiting area so we had to just hover by the door for ten minutes as they conversed in their own language, which we...
