All of the sushi and sashimi we had was fresh. The rice is good and The eggplant was delicious. Service is great and they are very attentive and friendly. The only drawback is that there is often a line and some waiting, particularly because the place is very small and very popular. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Toshi Sushi:

You have to be up for the wait. And they are like a cattle car, no flexibility at all. We arrived at 4:45 (15 minutes before opening on a Wednesday evening) but one member of our dinner party wasn't there yet, and even though seats were available, they wouldn't seat us until she arrived. They let us sit at the sushi bar. When she arrived, they said it had been too long and they wouldn't seat us at all, so we ordered... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential.
