We like to go to local places when traveling instead of chains. The other thing after a month road trip is to find something other than French fries. I had the sausage and perogies. It/they were wonderful. My wife had the seafood melt sandwich. It is served open face. It was very good but a little hard to eat. It was difficult to cut. I noted that she managed it none the less. read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Argo's Family Restaurant:

We recently discovered this remarkable restaurant.. large menu, friendly staff, great liver and onions! But last night we tried their fish and chips yikes! The batter was thick and inside was uncooked and gooey, the fish was at best warm. The staff was obliging and replaced the dish ... with another two slabs of grease soaked under cooked inedible fish accompanied by over salted undercooked fries. The waitress told... read more. The typical Canadian meals from Argo's Family Restaurant, prepared with ingredients from the country, are popular, there are also delectable vegetarian dishes on the menu. In this restaurant there is also an extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, and you can look forward to typical tasty French cuisine.
