This is not just a coffee shop, its so much more. They have great Korean food. Its not a five star place, just a small cozy coffee shop that also happens to have great food. The seating is comfortable and there is lots of parking. It is a great addition to the North End. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Jitter Bean Cafe:

Odd set up. You order like a lunch counter (which is NOT indicated upon entering, so we sat, only to be looked at oddly by owner (?)) Mix of cafe food and Korean food. I had a chicken panini sandwich was good. Friend had Bulgogi, she enjoyed but beef was an odd texture and dish was very salty. Food was ok. Lemon ginger tea was fantastic. We'll go back for the tea.
