Loved it. Taste was good. The restaurant setting is clean and welcoming. The strength of the restaurant is it's good. We had a green Thai curry and coriander chicken. It was spicy and hot but tasty. Not for the faint , but for those looking for a nice blend of spices and explosion of flavors.Woke up the next morning and our month was longing for more. read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User

doesn't like about Royal Angkor:

Maybe the kitchen had only one night, but the food was pretty awful. The green curry looked out and tasted as if someone had forgotten to add coconut milk (a watery green broth), and the padthai noodles were overcooked and mushy. The spring rolls were small. I was very disappointed because the other reviews were generally good.
