What User likes about The Yellow Deli: First visit, and was wonderfully surprised! They remember the details; unbleached napkins and himalayan salt, home-made chips to go with the terrific sandwich specialties they serve. The parking looks minimal from the front, which was the main reason I hadn't tried this place before, but there is a small whole-foods market behind it, and since it was a holiday, we were able to park next door. Recommended! It's a deli... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about The Yellow Deli:

to go and eat earlier and repeatedly the host appropriately did not serve this one customer in the time - over and over - this man had a serious condition and would go into a catatonic condition if he had some food in the time. Up there... voluntarily there. the yellow deli gets a representative in which it always jumps up city - but somehow is quite unknown, never a big name. I know only eating in their restaurants...
